

The map displays a topographic representation of a rural landscape. A prominent vertical road runs along the left edge. A network of dashed black lines delineates specific planning zones across the terrain. Several areas are highlighted in solid green, representing designated green spaces or parks. Yellow semi-circular markers are placed along some of the dashed boundary lines. The map includes numerous place names such as Schapbrede, Hovesaat, Bohnenkamp, and others. In the bottom right corner, there is a red-shaded residential area. A white box in the upper right contains German text providing legal context for the planning changes.
